

AFTER THE SUNSET

The girl who walks in the night! Standing out with the silhouettes of light defining every aspect of her Individual Existence, her fashion, her shining, in the depth of metaphorical darkness of this material world! She twirls in her sheer gold cape and creates a galaxy above her head and it's own reflection. The stars have showered down on her gown and created an universe on her hourglass body. It's her own night, her personal time to shine bright like a diamond in the enchanted darkness!!
